Getting to know God; my Pastor is fond of saying that knowing about God is not enough, we must get to know Him. We must develop a personal relationship with God. I know that my Pastor is right. If all someone knows are "facts" about God but they never really get to know Him, then they are truly incomplete. We are missing a vital part that we really need in this world and the next. We are created by God in His own image. "And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness: and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth. So God created man in His own image, in the image of God created He him; male and female created He them." (Genesis 1:26-27) God created us to commune with Him, to have a close, personal and loving relationship with Him. God wants to walk with us and He wants us to walk with Him in the perfect garden He created as our original home. "And they heard the voice of the Lord God walking in the garden in the cool of the day: and Adam and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the Lord God amongst the trees of the garden." (Genesis 3:8-9) Simply put, we are made to walk with God. What happened? What happened is we messed it up. We disobeyed God. Notice in the above scripture that God did not hide Himself from us, we hid from Him. The truth is that without God, mankind is a cancer upon the earth good only for death and destruction. Don't just take my word for it. Just look around you. Watch the news for two days in a row and then answer these questions for yourself: What is going on? Where are we headed? How will we get out of the mess this world is in? Who or what will save us from the awful fate we seem so desperate to achieve? You know the answer. "Salvation belongeth unto the Lord: thy blessing is upon thy people." (Psalm 3:8) We cannot save ourselves but when we have a personal relationship with Him, we become His people and we will, we shall have His blessings and His salvation. I've said all this to make this simple, but vitally important point: without God - death and destruction, with God - blessings and salvation.

Okay, people ask; why did God let this happen? Why didn't God prevent this world of pain we find ourselves in from happening to begin with? Why does our omnipotent, omniscient, omnipresent God allow these bad things to happen? For the answer God placed on my heart, we must go back to the beginning scripture. God created us in His image. Of course God could have created us as slaves and mindless automatons that would not and could not ever do anything wrong. But wait a minute, didn't we just read that God created us in His own image? Is God a slave? Is God a mindless automaton? Of course not. We cannot be created as slaves and in His image at the same time. Do you see the great deception here? Satan takes God's great gift to us, sharing His love and giving each of us a piece of Himself so that we are free moral agents, and uses it to indict God with allowing all the evil that happens in the world. What really happened is that while Satan was spinning his lies, God sent His only Son - Jesus Christ - to earth to teach us, guide us and eventually die for us so that through Him, we might be saved. When we accept Jesus, we become His people and again, blessings and salvation follow. Simply put, God is not a mindless slave and anything He creates in His image and likeness cannot be a mindless slave. Now please don't misunderstand me, we can (and should) choose to be His servants. We can choose to be slaves of God but the choice is ours to make. When it comes to free will, we are our Father's children.

Alright, we need to have a personal relationship with God and He created us to have that relationship but it is our choice to do so or not. How do we achieve this relationship? First, we must understand the implication of the above. Having a personal relationship with God is our true and natural state of being. A good start to this relationship is to read your Bible. Don't read it as a book of stories or fables. Don't read it as just a set of facts. Understand that when you read your Bible, God is talking to you personally. Don't worry if you don't understand everything perfectly, you won't, I don't either. Open yourself to the Lord and let Him lead you and speak to you. You will find that certain passages will really touch you deeply. This is God telling you what you need to know right now. Listen, learn and grow in the Lord. The more you let God into your life, the better it is. Your relationship with the Lord will grow and as we already know, you shall be blessed. Now any good and true relationship is not just a one way street. As you read your Bible and let God speak to you, teach you and comfort you; you should also be in a conversation with Him yourself. This is called praying. All praying really is, is talking to God. You can talk to God about anything. Most of us (even the ones who aren't really religious) know about what is called "911" prayers: "HELP ME, LORD! IF YOU'LL JUST GET ME OUT OF THIS, I'LL BE GOOD!" There is nothing wrong with these prayers. In fact, given our own self-inflicted (not God inflicted, self inflicted) penchant for messing up, it is only natural that we should ask our Father in heaven for help on a regular basis. But we should also pray to praise the Lord. We should pray thanks to the Lord for answering those "911" prayers. We should pray for wisdom. We should pray for the peace of God that passes all understanding. We should pray for others (even our enemies). We should pray regularly. If we have God's ear (and we do), then why would anyone give that up? Now guess what all this Bible reading and praying is doing? It is building up your personal relationship with God that is not based upon what others have experienced, but on your own experience with God that you in turn can share with others and encourage them to develop their own relationship with our heavenly Father. I think I could go on forever but I will leave you with one of my favorite prayers. "Lord, I don't really need any material "thing" right now. What I need more than anything else right now is to feel your presence. I know You are always there but if You could just touch me and let me feel your perfect love. That is what I need more than anything else. Thank You, Lord." Well, when the Lord answers that prayer, then I am floating in a river of living waters and all I can tell you is: come on in, the water is fine.
