HAPPY BIRTHDAY JoAnna Kyle Nick Chauncey we love you

Jesus talked about an end-time harvest and many of us believe this has already begun, though not fully yet. These are remarkable days. I have never seen anything like them since my early days in the Charismatic Renewal. People are more responsive to receiving Christ and many people are receiving the baptism with the Holy Spirit like never before.

The Lord described a harvest of such scale that nearly anyone who was available would need to be hired to help get it in. (Matthew 20:1-16) The landowner was hiring people at the eleventh hour because the harvest was so great. There are three stages of harvest – unripened, ripened, and rotten. When things are ready, we must get the harvest in. I have seen crops rotting in the field for lack of laborers and it is a deeply discouraging sight. Once, I was driving through an apple growing area in New York State, passing row after row apple trees loaded with bright red apples with snow on them. It was very late in the fall and no one had picked them because there was a shortage of laborers. As we drove on, I could not get my mind off of those apples. What a waste.

When the great harvest fully comes, people will be knocking on our doors asking how they can be saved. There will be meetings without end. Our services will run late into the night because people will not want to miss anything that God is doing. It is going to be a very busy time. Even today most of the pastors I relate to have built bigger “barns” in order to accommodate the growth they are expecting. Although they may not be able to explain it, most pastors are getting ready for something big. They are expecting a great influx of people into the churches before Jesus returns. Again, this will be a very busy time of ministry. It will be a time when everyone who can be employed in the Kingdom will be put to work.

In all this I have a major concern.

If the work of the Kingdom is going to get busier because of the harvest, where are we going to get the strength to do what is required of us? People seem to be maxed-out now! Where are we going to get the spiritual reserve to go the distance until the end?

Not only do I believe the great harvest is coming, but I believe that darkness is going to get darker and persecution will assail the North American church. Where are we going to get the wherewithal to stand?

It is kind of like the questions the Lord asked Jeremiah when he was going through persecution early in his ministry. He had been struggling at speaking the Lord in his own home town, experiencing death threats. The Lord asked the young prophet, “If you have having trouble running against people, how are you going to run against horses?” If you are having trouble running on the open plain, how are you going to run in the swamps?” (Jeremiah 12:5)

Here are the same two questions paraphrased from The Message:

“So, Jeremiah, if you're worn out in this footrace with men, what makes you think you can race against horses? And if you can't keep your wits during times of calm, what's going to happen when troubles break loose like the Jordan in flood?”

We should ask ourselves the same questions.

I believe things are going to become increasingly more difficult; I believe that it is going to be a stressful time and a confusing time. In fact, here is a great irony; during the end-time harvest there will also be a great falling away taking place. Can you picture that? During the time of the greatest influx of new believers in the history of the church, there will be a great falling away of believers who had been in our churches for many years. Jesus prophesied this when He said, “And because lawlessness will abound, the love of many will grow cold. But he who endures to the end shall be saved.” (Matthew 24:12,13)

Believers will lose their love for the Lord and for each other. There will be many betrayals and people changing sides. The lawlessness that Jesus spoke about is a time when God's Word will no longer set the boundaries for our behavior. An attitude of, “I can do whatever I want to do” will abound, even in our churches. This has already begun. People who have been Christians for a long time will fall away from the church because they do not want to submit to authority. I believe the apostle Paul was referring to this period when he wrote to the young church at Thessalonica, countering the idea being taught there that the Day of the Lord had already come. He wrote in 2 Thessalonians 2:1-4, “Now, brethren, concerning the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our gathering together to Him, we ask you, not to be soon shaken in mind or troubled, either by spirit or by word or by letter, as if from us, as though the day of Christ had come. Let no one deceive you by any means; for that Day will not come unless the falling away comes first, and the man of sin is revealed, the son of perdition, who opposes and exalts himself above all that is called God or that is worshiped, so that he sits as God in the temple of God, showing himself that he is God.”

I believe there is a significant key to having the strength to stand and the staying power to go the distance. This key will also help us keep our hearts in the love of God so we do not fall away. It has to do with learning how to come aside and get along with the Lord. We need to learn how to separate ourselves unto Him and get His perspective on things. Nothing else will keep us from being sucked into the vortex of darkness that is coming. It will enable us to endure the persecution that will either make or break us. We should not be the confused ones during this confusing time. In fact, those who know their God should be doing exploits like we have never seen before. To do this, we need to know how to seek Him and wait upon Him. Jude closed his end-time epistle with a wonderful promise of God's keeping power:

Jude 1:24,25

“Now to Him who is able to keep you from stumbling, And to present you faultless Before the presence of His glory with exceeding joy, To God our Savior, Who alone is wise, Be glory and majesty, Dominion and power, Both now and forever.” Amen.”
