Two girls speed down the highway at 90 mph.

"Hey," asks the brunette at the wheel. "Do you see any cops following us?"

The blonde turns around. "As a matter of fact, I do."

"Dang!" says the brunette. "Are his flashers on?"

The blonde turns around again. "Yup. Nope. Yup. Nope. Yup."

Through the years, I have had the opportunity to pray for many people to receive the baptism with the Holy Spirit. From their experiences, I have been able to re-live the wonder of my own, which took place back in 1978. I can recall both the thrill and trepidation of those early days, filled with discovery and doubt. I didn't have anyone to coach me through this experience, but I was led by a strong desire to have whatever God had promised. I wanted to experience what was in the Book of Acts for myself and would not come up for air until I did.

As I pray for folks today, I can often see the same determination in their faces — mixed with apprehension. As I listen to their questions and fears, I can hear the same struggles and uncertainties that blocked my own heart. It is a great privilege to lay my hands on them and witness the wonder of the Holy Spirit coming into them.

We all face a range of blocks and barriers that tend to impede our spiritual progress. Some are large theological ones; others are small pockets of personal resistance, often based on reaction rather than revelation. All of the blocks you and I will ever experience are common to man. In fact, when I think about it, all the same blocks that I had to overcome when I first began to learn to yield to Him are the same ones I still have to overcome today as I try to yield to Him.

In this study, I hope to identify these blocks and barriers, large and small, and try to give a Biblical response to them so we can learn to yield more intentionally to the Holy Spirit for the rest of our lives.

How foolish to try to advance the Kingdom of God with a "pickaxe 'n' shovel", when there is a "bulldozer" sitting by, all warmed up and ready to go. All it needs is someone to use it. These days, we need more of God's power to undo and outdo the work of darkness that surrounds us. For me, having the Holy Spirit is not a plus, a perk, or a pick-me-up; He is an essential! He is not an option, like the ones we consider when buying a car. He is the motor, the frame, the wheels, the wiring, and the gasoline. We can drive without power windows, but can't get very far without Him.

The first thing we need to consider when removing the reservations we have about the work of the Holy Spirit in our lives is the great sense of priority Jesus placed upon receiving Him.

This urgency I feel to introduce people to the Holy Spirit and His ministry came from Jesus while I was reading what He said about the coming of Holy Spirit. As I read John 14, 15, and 16 over and over again, I began to absorb the sense of priority He felt. He wasn't commanding them to receive, but neither was it a polite suggestion. He urged them to receive.

Then as I began to pray for people to receive, I saw how it so dramatically changed their lives. I began to see how much difference there was between those who had been baptized with the Holy Spirit and those who had not, just as there is between those who are saved and those who are not.

I prayed for each of my own children to receive. I prayed for everyone that I ever disciplined, so they could have access to the source themselves. I prayed for the young people in our church and urged parents to pray for this for their own children. Whenever new people would visit our church, I never waited very long before meeting with them in person, sitting knee-cap to knee-cap, asking them if they had received the Holy Spirit since they believed. I didn't feel like I was pushing something on them, like an over-eager salesman selling them something they did not really need. I knew it was a life-changing experience they were longing for.

When you read Jesus' last words before ascending to Heaven in Mark's Gospel, you can see that He expected His miraculous ministry to continue through His disciples. He talked about certain signs that He expected would follow those believers who believed. These were important to Him and should become important to us. They are written in red ink; Jesus taught it.

As Jesus prepared the disciples for His departure, He honored the Holy Spirit's ministry by telling them not to leave home without receiving Him and His power:

Luke 24:49-52: "Behold, I send the Promise of My Father upon you; but tarry in the city of Jerusalem until you are endued with power from on high.' And He led them out as far as Bethany, and He lifted up His hands and blessed them. Now it came to pass, while He blessed them, that He was parted from them and carried up into heaven. And they worshiped Him, and returned to Jerusalem with great joy, and were continually in the temple praising and blessing God. Amen."

Luke wrote down what Jesus said before He ascended and enlarged upon when He wrote the Book of Acts:

Acts 1:4-8: "And being assembled together with them, He commanded them not to depart from Jerusalem, but to wait for the Promise of the Father; 'which,' He said, 'you have heard from Me; for John truly baptized with water, but you shall be baptized with the Holy Spirit not many days from now.' Therefore, when they had come together, they asked Him, saying, 'Lord, will You at this time restore the kingdom to Israel?' And He said to them, 'It is not for you to know times or seasons which the Father has put in His own authority. But you shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you; and you shall be witnesses to Me in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth.'"

The Apostle Peter urged people to receive this great Gift from God, by saying it was intended for us, our children, and for those who were afar off.

Acts 2:37-39: "Now when they heard this, they were cut to the heart, and said to Peter and the rest of the apostles, 'Men and brethren, what shall we do?' Then Peter said to them, 'Repent, and let every one of you be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins; and you shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. For the promise is to you and to your children, and to all who are afar off, as many as the Lord our God will call.'"

You can also see the apostle's priority on receiving the Holy Spirit in the way they quickly sent Peter and John down to Samaria right after Phillip preached the gospel there. They felt it was an essential for new Christians to receive the experience. (Acts 8:14, 15)

The Apostle Paul also placed a high priority on receiving the Holy Spirit, which was evident by the first question he asked the men at Ephesus. During his first meeting with them, the first question he asked was, "Have you received the Holy Spirit since you believed?" (Acts 19:2)

We need to ask people this same question.

We also need to quickly arrange for a time of laying on of hands for new believers.

We need to lead our children into it.

One way of making the Holy Spirit a priority in our life and ministry is by letting the words of Jesus seep deep into our own heart. Read them over and over again, stay with it until you feel something of the urgency He felt.
