When we are first introduced to the Holy Spirit in the Bible, we see how God and Jesus were together in Heaven but He was here brooding upon the face of the deep. When the God of Creation spoke, His will was expressed in words, which in turn activated the power of the Holy Spirit in this realm. God works the same way today, by willing something, speaking it into being, which is actually done by the Holy Spirit.

When Jesus came along, we got a glimpse of how all this worked together in "a man" who was fully yielded to doing God's will. Jesus said He only did what the Father willed. He did not say or do anything unless the Father showed Him what to do. He said that the miraculous work in Him was really the Father at work, willing and wanting to heal people. He was just an extension of the Father's will.

At the same time, Jesus was baptized with the Holy Spirit and power. He had never done a miracle until He was baptized with the Holy Spirit. Once this occurred, He often demonstrated the Father's will with power.

Jesus said that the Holy Spirit was not an independent "power" doing whatever He wills, but that He only worked in a corresponding way, in response to what Jesus said. From all this, we can see how the Trinity works:

1. We can see God the Father is the creator and the one whose will is paramount.
2. The Apostle John, referring to Jesus' role in Creation, wrote in John 1:3: "All things were made through Him, and without Him nothing was made that was made." Even today, nothing is done without the word of God.
3. In both Testaments, it is abundantly clear that the ministry of the Holy Spirit is equated as miraculous power. The word power is from the Greek word dunamis, which specifically means "miraculous power".

The reason I am taking time to establish all this is because today in the Church we have somehow allowed a subtle separation to take place. We have separated the Holy Spirit from His miraculous power. We might even think that we have the Holy Spirit within us, but do not allow any of His miraculous work to be manifested in and through us. We have a "neutered" Holy Spirit. Often, we even attribute work to Him that we have done ourselves. Sadly, this can also be said of many Pentecostal's today as well. This should not be so, but it is.

THE HAND OF GOD

The Holy Spirit is sometimes called "The Hand of God". This may sound like a simple statement, but what can you accomplish without using your hand? When you stop and think about the Holy Spirit as being God's Hand, He takes on a much more significant role in whatever God does. In the Old Testament, we can find many references to the hand of God at work. Here are just a few...

He comes upon us to speak for God: "But now bring me a musician.' Then it happened, when the musician played, that the hand of the Lord came upon him." (2 Kings 3:15)

He comes upon us to teach by revelation: "I will teach you by the hand of God; What is with the Almighty I will not conceal." (Job 27:11)

He comes upon us to show us things to come: "...the word of the Lord came expressly to Ezekiel the priest, the son of Buzi, in the land of the Chaldeans by the River Chebar; and the hand of the Lord was upon him there." (Ezekiel 1:3)

He physically wrote the Law of God: "And when He had made an end of speaking with him on Mount Sinai, He gave Moses two tablets of the Testimony, tablets of stone, written with the finger of God." (Exodus 31:18)
