“Then he said unto them, Go your way, eat the fat, and drink the sweet, and send portions unto them for whom nothing is prepared: for this day is holy unto the Lord: neither be ye sorry; for the joy of the Lord is your strength.” (Nehemiah 8:10) Hey! You Christians, cheer up! Yes, I mean you. If you call yourself a Christian and Jesus Christ is your personal savior sitting at the right hand of God right now making intercession for you, then cheer up! “Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us.” (Romans 8:34) I know, I know, we look around at the world and it easy to lose our joy. There is sin everywhere. There is violence everywhere. Not only is there an ever increasing disregard for God but there is also a determined effort to deny God. In other words, it's not just that some people choose to ignore God but that some choose to actively fight against Him and His standards or even challenge whether He even exists at all. Guess what? That's not you. Remember, I'm talking to you Christians, you who have accepted Christ as your personal savior and have the Holy Spirit within you. If you have felt the movement of the Holy Spirit within you – you know. If you have read His Word and been overwhelmed (and overjoyed) by the revelations the Lord has revealed to you through the Bible – you know. If you have ever witnessed a sunset or seen the love in a child's eyes – you know. You know that God is real. You know that God loves you. You know that where He is, is also exactly where you want to be ... forever. But, this world is so ... terrible. Why is God doing this? The answer is that He isn't doing it, Satan is. Satan is the prince of this evil world. “Wherein in time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience:” (Ephesians 2:2) The course of this world is “according to the prince of the power of the air” (Satan) and his spirit is working in the children of this world right now. Why keeps ringing in my head, why does God allow Satan to do these horrible things or why does He even allow Satan to exist at all. Surely if God can speak the universe into existence, then He can take Satan out whenever He wants. While this is true and will actually happen in the future (more on this later), I also know that God gave us free will and He wants us to choose Him. “I call heaven and earth to record this day against you, that I have set before you life and death, blessing and cursing: therefore choose life, that both thou and thy seed may live:” (Deuteronomy 30:19) And again, “And if it seem evil unto you to serve the Lord, choose you this day whom ye will serve; whether the gods which your fathers served on the other side of the flood, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwell: but as for me and my house, we will serve the Lord.” (Joshua 24:15) Now, if we are to freely choose something, it would seem to me that you would have to have a real choice. In other words, if Satan didn't exist, then our choice would be to serve God or ... nothing. When someone tells you to choose but there is only one choice available, is that a real choice? No, it isn't. But God gave us real free will and with that a real choice to make: God or the devil. But what about the world? The violence, the sin, the lack of moral values that are surely getting worse and worse. Well, this serves to make the choice clear. There is a divide between God's people and Satan's people. As the very end times draws nearer and nearer, people need to see Satan and his works as they really are – evil. At the very end, there will be no more fence-sitters, no uncommitted and no neutral area. You will either be for God and what He stands for ... or not. Choose love or murder. Choose love or stealing. Choose love or depravity. Choose love or jihad. But Bill, I thought we are supposed to choose God. When did God and love become the same thing? From before the universe ever was, God was, and is, and will be forever for “God is love” (1 John 4:8b) Hey! You Christians, cheer up! God warned us that this would happen. “Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils; Speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience seared with a hot iron;” (1 Timothy 4: 1 – 2) Now, how do you suppose people would act if their conscience was seared out of them and they were following the doctrine of devils? It's a trick question. You don't have to suppose. Look around at the world. It is delivered to your home every day in the news. Ask the people in Boston about the marathon – they know. Ask the people from Columbine – they know. God told us it would be like this. Is the choice becoming clearer? It should and it will. The real tribulation isn't even here yet but we can feel it coming. Hey! You Christians, cheer up! God is still in charge. “And the Lord said unto Moses, Is the Lord's hand waxed short? Thou shalt see now whether my word shall come to pass or not.” (Numbers 11:23) Of course, God's word came to pass just as He said it would and just as it always does. “Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away.” (Mark 13:31) And again, “But the word of the Lord endureth for ever. And this is the word which by the gospel is preached unto you.” (1 Peter 1:25) And finally, after Satan is thrown into the lake of fire (God does take Satan out but in His own time) and it is at the end of all things, what does your word tell us Lord? “And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and He will dwell with them, and they shall be His people, and God Himself shall be with them, and be their God. And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away.” (Revelation 21: 2 – 4) You see, God is “birthing” a new spiritual kingdom full of people who have chosen love over hate and who have chosen God over Satan. While birthing pains are never easy, they are necessary to bring forth this new, eternal life. So Hey, you Christians, cheer up! God has you right in the palm of His hand forever. You can choose to jump off but He will never, ever drop you. So take joy in your salvation and through His grace find the strength that He has for you to endure these trying times. “But where sin abounded, grace did much more abound:” (Romans 5:20b) God Bless You and Keep You.
