When we left off in the last article, Jesus had just healed the woman who had an issue of blood 12 years just by her touching His clothes. Her faith had overcome every obstacle and she was made whole by the healing power of Jesus Christ. But wait, Jesus had been on the way to Jairus' house to touch and heal his daughter. Well, even as Jesus was telling the woman to "go in peace" (Mark 5:34), a man from Jairus' household came up to them and gave them some bad news. Jairus' daughter had died and Jesus was no longer needed as a healing was no longer possible. However, what did Jesus have to say when they got this terrible news? 'As soon as Jesus heard the word that was spoken, He saith unto the ruler of the synagogue (Jairus), Be not afraid, only believe.' (Mark 5:36) The Bible does not record what Jairus said (if anything) or what he was thinking but we do know what he did and importantly, what he didn't do. Jairus did not give in to despair. He did not lose his faith and tell Jesus never mind. He also didn't give in to anger. He didn't try to blame Jesus or argue or vilify Him. You know, a lot of people faced with this situation would go one way (despair) or another (anger at God) but what Jairus did was believe what Jesus told him. He didn't give in to anything; instead he did what Jesus told him...he believed! We know this because of what Jairus did (Yes, Lord). Jairus brought Jesus to his house. This is a great lesson in Yes, Lord. When they got to Jairus' house, the mourners were already weeping, wailing and bemoaning the death of this young 12 year old girl. When Jesus saw this, He said, "Why make ye this ado, and weep? The damsel is not dead, but sleepeth." (Mark 5:39) What was the reaction of the people to Jesus' statement? They laughed at Him. They knew what dead was and this girl was dead and any talk of "sleeping" was just foolishness to them. Jesus put them all out of the house except the girl's parents and the three apostles that were with Him - Peter, James and John. These six went into the room where the girl was lying. "And He took the damsel by the hand, and said unto her, Talithacumi; which is, being interpreted, Damsel, I say unto thee. Arise. And straightway the damsel arose, and walked; for she was of the age of twelve years. And they were astonished with a great astonishment." (Mark 5:41-42) Jesus raised the girl from the dead. Jairus' faithful acceptance of Jesus' instruction to "believe" led to a great miracle. Jesus Christ, the only begotten Son of God demonstrated His power over death itself. Jairus had faith that just His touch could and would heal his daughter. Jairus then had the faith to believe Jesus even when all looked lost. Jairus had faith even in the face of scorn and ridicule.

This is the great lesson from Mark, Chapter 5...faith. The woman's faith made her whole and Jairus' faith allowed Jesus to raise his daughter from the dead. This thought led to another: Jesus operates within the faith that we have. My first example is from Mark, Chapter 6. After the miracle of Jairus' daughter, Jesus went home but most of the people there remembered Jesus as a local kid and did not have faith in His divinity. "But Jesus said unto them, A prophet is not without honour, but in his own country, and among his own kin, and in his own house. And He could there do no mighty work, save that He laid His hands upon a few sick folk, and healed them. And He marveled because of their unbelief. And He went round about the villages, teaching." (Mark 6:4-6) I must admit that I got kind of upset the first time I read this. My first thought was, "That's not true, this is Jesus. He can do mighty works whenever He wants to." While I still believe this is true on one level, I know that for Jesus to do mighty works for people who have no faith would be another way of forcing Himself on people who do not even believe in Him. That is not how Jesus is. Jesus operates within the faith that we have and if we have no faith, we leave Jesus no room to work toward our own salvation. But, even if we have only a little faith, Jesus can and does perform mighty works in our lives. "And Jesus said unto them, Because of your unbelief: for verily I say unto you, If ye have faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place; and it shall remove; and nothing shall be impossible unto you." (Matthew 17:20) You see, while you must have some faith, it can be as small as small is and Jesus can operate within that faith to perform mighty, mighty miracles. Now let's look at Jairus' faith. His faith was such that he believed Jesus needed to physically touch his daughter for her to be healed. What happened? Jesus took the girl's hand and raised her from the dead. Jairus' faith needed a physical touch and Jesus operated within Jairus' faith and provided that touch. Next, look at the woman with an issue of blood. Her faith did not need a physical touch from Jesus. No, her faith told her all she needed was to touch His clothes. She put feet on her faith and touched His clothes and Jesus operated within her faith and healed her just by the touch of His clothes. Now, let's look at an example of great faith. In Matthew, Chapter 8, a Roman centurion approached Jesus about healing his servant. Jesus agreed to come and perform the healing but the centurion told Him that He didn't need to come anywhere or touch anyone. Jesus could say the word right where He was and the servant would be healed. "When Jesus heard it, He marveled, and said to them that followed, Verily I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel." (Matthew 8:10) Wow, but if you think about it. It makes sense. God spoke the world and everything in it into being (Including you and me) so of course He could speak a healing. Lord, you don't have to take a single step in any direction or touch anyone. Just speak the word and it's a done deal. Jesus operated within the centurion's faith, spoke a healing and the servant was healed.

Have faith; believe in God and in His Son Jesus Christ. Even if your faith is so small you only leave Jesus with space enough for a grain of mustard seed, Jesus can and will operate within that space just as if it were as big as the entire universe and perform miracles in your life. I'll finish with one more thought. God will bless your faith. The apostle Thomas had not seen Jesus' resurrection and he could not believe except that he saw Jesus and touched his crucifixion wounds. Eight days later, Jesus appeared to Thomas. "Jesus saith unto him, Thomas, because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed: blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed." (John 20:29) In closing, I know Jesus was talking to Jairus when He said, "Be not afraid, only believe." But I know this is a message for you personally.

God Bless You and Keep You
