"I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing." (John 15:5) Do you see the order of things here? Of course you do. Jesus is the vine and we grow from Him. He does not grow from us. We did not make Him. He made us. We owe Him everything: our bodies, our souls, our spirits all came from Him as His gift to us. He owes us nothing. Yet, He freely gives us so much. First, He gives us truth. "I AM the true vine, and my Father is the husbandman." (John 15:1) In fact, He gives us truth so completely, so consistently and so deeply that we can rightly expect it from Him all the time and in every situation no matter what. From here, it is not such a big step in our feeble understanding to go from righteous expectation to the foolish presumption that He owes us the truth. In other words, He is so perfect in the truth that He gives us that we can sometimes think that it must be owed us somehow because of how perfectly well He pays us. This is not true. He does not pay us truth; He gives us truth. He does this not because of us, of who we are or what we've done. He does this because of who He is. "Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me." (John 14:6) He gives us truth because He is truth. Have you made the connection? Of course you have. We can take out all the middle words and simply state that God gives us Himself as His free gift to us. You know what else God gives us? God gives us love. "Beloved, let us love one another: for love is of God; and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God. He that that loveth not knoweth not God; for God is love. (1 John 4:7 – 8) Now let's make a connection. "So God created man in His own image, in the image of God created He him; male and female created He them." (Genesis 1:27) Early in my Christian walk, my Sunday school teacher asked, "How are we made in God's image?" Immediately there was that still, small voice in my head saying, "In our capacity to love." There was no thinking, no pondering or musing (which I do so much I think it might be my natural state). No, it did not come from me but from outside of me and my spirit cried truth immediately as well. I have since read of triune beings and other ways we are made in His image and I can say "Amen" to them but still to this day, I know the truest answer is love. When we love our children, that love comes from God. When we love our spouses, that love comes from God. When we love our enemies, that love surely comes from God. The fact that we can love at all comes from God. Think about it. If we are made in His image (and we are) and if God is love (He is), then love is part of our original construction. Again, we can take out all the middle words and simply state that God gives us Himself as His free gift to us. I don't know about you, but I'm having fun right now. Walking with the Lord, talking with the Lord, reading and learning about the Lord is fun! Others might use different words, weightier words and I say, "Amen. Brother, speak what you know about the Lord boldly." But for me, I can say sincerely and truthfully that my walk with the Lord has been, is, and always will be – FUN. I spent over two hours talking with my Pastor about the Lord yesterday and guess what? It was fun. In fact, the only reason we quit when we did was because we had other work to do for the Lord. Yes, walking with the Lord is fun and brings great joy to your heart, mind, spirit and soul. This brings me to the next thing the Lord gives us; He gives us strength. "Then he said unto them, Go your way, eat the fat, and drink the sweet, and send portions unto them for whom nothing is prepared: for this day is holy unto our Lord: neither be ye sorry; for the joy of the Lord is your strength." (Nehemiah 8:10) He gives us the strength to endure. He gives us the strength to resist the Devil. He gives us the strength to escape temptation. He also gives us the strength to be humble in the face of pride. He gives us the strength to forgive those who trespass against us. He gives us the strength to speak the truth in love so that we can freely share His gifts to us with others. We cannot do any of these things consistently and persistently without His strength to lean on and help us. Oh, but with His strength we can boldly say along with the Apostle Paul. "What shall we say then to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us?" (Romans 8:31) God gives us His strength to help us. "God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble." (Psalms 46:1) Once again, God gives us Himself as His free gift to us. Hallelujah! Has God given us anything else? Of course He has. He has given us so much but I only have room here for one more. To learn everything that the Lord has for us and for you personally, you must (personally) get into His Word. You must read and study your Bible. "And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld His glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth." (John 1:14) Even here, when I thought I was giving a brief exhortation to read the Bible, we can see that He is His Word, and His Word is also His gift to us. He gives us Himself as His free gift to us. This is the final gift in this article. God gives us salvation. "Behold, God is my salvation; I will trust, and not be afraid: for the Lord JEHOVAH is my strength and my song; He also is become my salvation. Therefore with joy shall ye draw water out of the wells of salvation." (Isaiah 12:2 – 3) God is your salvation. He wants to save you personally. (See 1 Timothy 2:4) All you have to do is accept His Son as your personal savior. You are saved by grace (His free unmerited gift) through faith (believing on His Son – Jesus Christ). (See Ephesians 2:8) How does this work? "That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised Him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation." (Romans 10:9 – 10) Jesus, full of grace and truth, wants to give you the gift of eternal salvation. Again, Jesus gives Himself as His free gift to us. Jesus did not just give us grace but He gave His very life's blood on Calvary so that we might be saved. If you are reading this article, God is calling you to Him. He wants to shower you with all these gifts and many more. Don't delay. As always, the Lord says it best, "(For He saith, I have heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succoured thee: behold now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation.) (2 Corinthians 6:2) After you have accepted Him, remember the first scripture of this article and be a fruitful branch. Freely share with others the gifts He has given you. God Bless You and Keep You
