What I Have To Say

God is number 1. God Himself tells us this in the very first commandment, "Thou shalt have no other gods before me." (Exodus 20:3) It is short, uncomplicated, and easy to understand and yet it means everything. First, it is truth. God is number 1 not because I say it is or you say it is or that he or she says it is. God is number 1 because it is THE TRUTH! Out of this truth sprang all of creation: suns, planets, atoms, gravity, you and me. Everything we can see, touch or experience are all products of God's transcendence and of His ascendancy. He is prior to and above all things. "Happy is he that hath the God of Jacob for his help, whose hope is in the Lord his God: which made heaven, and earth, the sea, and all that therein is: which keepeth truth forever." (Psalm 146: 5 & 6) The evidence of this truth is all around us. It is in the order of the cosmos. It is in the cycle of the seasons. It is in the beauty of God's Word. It is in the spark of life He placed in us. I believe each of us can sense this truth deep within ourselves. We might deny it or be fooled into believing something else but at the very core of our being we are...we exist...there is something beyond nothingness that speaks truth to our very souls. This truth that we can sense is simply this: He spoke and we are and we will continue to be. Thank You, Lord. "I will praise thee; for I am fearfully and wonderfully made: marvelous are thy works; and that my soul knoweth right well." (Psalm 139:14) The truth is that God is number 1.

Where does this truth lead us? It leads us to faith. When we know the truth, we must believe in Him because He is the truth. In other words, the truth of God and faith in God go hand in hand. "But without faith it is impossible to please Him: for he that cometh to God must believe that He is, and that He is a rewarder of those that diligently seek Him." (Hebrews 11:5) When we have faith in God, we want to please Him. Our faith makes Him number 1 in our lives. How do we please Him? We please Him by doing what He tells us to do. "And Samuel said, Hath the Lord as great delight in burnt-offerings and sacrifices, as in obeying the voice of the Lord? Behold, to obey is better than sacrifice, and to hearken than the fat of rams." (1 Samuel 15:22) To this end He sent the Holy Spirit to guide various human authors in writings that were compiled into a book in order to help us build our faith and to help and guide us as we live our lives. We call this book the Bible. It is the Word of God. "So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God." (Romans 10:17) How does the Bible build our faith? It does this by teaching us about God. It teaches us about our history with God. It teaches us about the nature of God. We learn about His lovingkindness, His tender mercies and His longsuffering. "But thou, O Lord, art a God full of compassion, and gracious, longsuffering, and plenteous in mercy and truth." (Psalm 86:15) We also learn about His justice, judgment and wrath. "Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap." (Galatians 6:7) We also learn that we are all sinners. We learn how our sinful condition came about (God didn't do it. We did it to ourselves by listening to Satan). We learn that because of our sinful nature, none of us can or ever will be good enough to earn our way into heaven. "For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God." (Romans 3:23) We also learn of God's love for us even in our sinful condition. We learn of His plan to save us from our sin so we can live eternally with Him in heaven. We learn how God sent His only Son, Jesus Christ, to take all the sins of the world upon Himself and to die for us on the cross so that we might be saved. We learn how God raised Him from the dead on the third day and thus conquered sin and death. He now sits at the right hand of God making intercession for us. We learn that the only way into heaven is through God's grace because we cannot earn our way into heaven. We learn that His grace is extended to those who believe in his Son Jesus. Here is God's simple plan of salvation: "That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised Him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation." (Romans 10: 9 & 10) Finally (for our purposes), we learn to love each other. We learn how we should treat each other. We learn how we ought to be. We learn how Jesus sent the Holy Spirit to teach us and guide us in how we ought to behave. We learn how our love for God and each other brings us together in unity. We learn how we should be of one mind and one accord as we follow Jesus' example and teaching in our lives. What did Jesus teach us? Well, among other things, He taught us that God is number 1.

We need to live our Christian lives by this truth. If we really put God as number 1 in our lives, how can we be so fractured in denominational discord and strife? We Christians are the body of Christ (See 1 Corinthians 12). We are called to unity. We are to be of one mind, in one accord. The only true way to do this is to make God number 1 in our lives. When we stop letting miscellaneous issues distract us, then we can stay focused on God. Or in other words, we should be so hungry for God that the tiny foxes that seem to so beset us just fade away as we refuse them our attention. Stay focused on God instead of concentrating on our minor differences because this is not profitable to any of us. Do not be disturbed, do not be dismayed, do not be in discord. Be focused, be overjoyed, be of one mind about this great truth – GOD IS NUMBER 1!
