What I Have To Say

• Run to God, this is our duty. This is what we should be doing. This is what He tells us to do. "The name of the Lord is a strong tower; the righteous runneth into it, and is safe." (Proverbs 18:10) We should run to God and seek Him under all circumstances. We should run to Him with praise and thanksgiving when things are going well. "Let the people praise thee, O God, let all the people praise thee." (Psalm 67:5) "Give thanks unto the Lord, call upon His name, make known His deeds among the people." (1 Chronicles 16:8) Praise the Lord, thank Him call upon Him, and give testimony of what He has done for you. When your cup is running over, this is not too hard to do. God is blessing you abundantly and of course you are singing His praises and shouting your thanks for all that he has done for you and yours. Beware though, pride is a sneaky tool of the devil and can slip into your life before you know it. Understand that you did not and cannot bless yourself. You cannot run your own cup over. It is a gift from God. "Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning." (James 1:17) Run to God when things are going good and be sure to keep your focus on Him and not on yourself and your own talents because even your own talent is a gift from God. "For who maketh thee to differ from another? and what hast thou that thou didst not receive? Now if thou didst receive it, why dost thou glory, as if thou hadst not received it?" (1 Corinthians 4:7)

• Run to God when things are not going good. When you are facing trials and tests and do not understand what is going on or why this is happening to you, run to God. He is your rest. "Come unto me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest." (Matthew 11:28) When tribulations come without warning and you are in great distress and anxiety, run to God. He is your peace. "These things I have spoken to you, that in Me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world." (John 16:33) To me, it seems as if it is easiest to run to God in these situations. When we are in trouble and cannot overcome it on our own, we realize that we need God. When we know we need saving, we run to God. "Then they cry unto the Lord in their trouble, and He saveth them out of their distresses. He sent His Word, and healed them, and delivered them from their destructions. Oh that men would praise the Lord for His goodness, and for His wonderful work to the children of men." (Psalm 107: 19 – 21) When we run to God because we are in trouble, He saves and delivers us. We may have to reap what we have sown but we know that in the end, we will be with God. There is perfect peace in this knowledge. When we run to Him in all sincerity; truly seeking Him, He is faithful to save us because that is what He is. "Know therefore that the Lord thy God, He is God, the faithful God, which keepeth covenant and mercy with them that love Him and keep His commandments to a thousand generations." (Deuteronomy 7:9)

• When you have sinned, when you know that you have displeased God Almighty – your Creator – Run to God! Even though your first instinct when you have sinned is to run away and hide from your heavenly Father's displeasure, don't do it. When Satan tells you that you are unworthy, that God cannot possibly still love you; run to God. The first sinful response from Adam and Eve after the original sin was to run and hide from God. "And they heard the voice of the Lord God walking in the garden in the cool of the day: and Adam and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the Lord God amongst the trees of the garden." (Genesis 3:8) Satan uses our sin to deceive us into running away from God when we should always be running to God. When your own sins have terrorized you into fleeing from His presence; when Satan and all his demons are screaming at you to run away; that is when you must run to Him in repentance and confess your sins to Him and He will forgive you. When you run to Him in this fashion it will never be in vain. I will leave you with two stories from the Bible that demonstrates this. The first is a parable by Jesus Himself. It is the story of the prodigal son (see Luke 15:11 – 32). In this story the prodigal son took his inheritance from his father and went into a foreign country and wasted everything in prodigal (sinful) living. This lifestyle left him completely destitute and near starvation. When he came to himself, he realized how bad off he was and how badly he had sinned. He resolved to return to his father, confess his sin and ask to be a servant (not a son, he had sinned too badly for that) in his father's house. His father not only forgave him, but restored him and celebrated the return of his lost son. The son represents us sinners and the father represents God. The second story is a story about King David. 1 Samuel 13:14 states that the Lord sought a man after His own heart and later the Lord chose David. In other words, David was a man after God's own heart. Much later, King David committed adultery with a woman and had her husband killed to cover it up (see 2 Samuel 11 & 12). Then God sent His prophet Nathan to confront David about these sins. David immediately repented and asked God to forgive him and God did forgive him. At first, I had trouble combining the two. How could a man after God's own heart (David) be an adulterer and murderer? Then God showed me that it was David's reaction to Nathan that showed his heart. He did not shirk his responsibility and try to blame someone else. He immediately confessed, repented and asked God to forgive him. His first reaction was to run to God, not away from Him. In other words, his first instinct (his heart) was towards God, not away from Him. When faced with this great calamity of his own making, he still turned to God just like he did when facing all the other problems (Goliath, King Saul, etc.) in his life. As for his sin, God knows he was a sinner. God knows I am a sinner. God even knows that you are a sinner. It is not in us to be perfect and without sin. What we can do is run to God with a contrite and broken spirit. We can confess our sins and accept the grace offered through His Son Jesus Christ.

• We can run to God in the good times if our pride doesn't interfere. We can run to God in the trying time if our faith perseveres. Most importantly, we can even run to God after we have displeased Him if our hearts are true. God Bless You and Keep You You can e-mail What I Have to Say at bill_isay@yahoo.com
