The old man had died. A wonderful funeral was in progress and the town's preacher talked at length of the good traits of the deceased, what an honest man he was, and what a loving husband and kind father he was. Finally, the widow leaned over and whispered to one of her children. "go up there and take a look in the coffin and see if that's your pa"

What I Have To Say

It is the day after Easter and normally you would think someone would do an Easter message before Easter but... here it is. Easter is when we celebrate the resurrection of Jesus Christ. It is the very foundation of our Christian faith. "Now if Christ be preached that He rose from the dead, how say some among you that there is no resurrection of the dead? But if there be no resurrection, then Christ is not risen: And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching in vain, and your faith is also vain." (1 Corinthians 15: 12 – 14) Simple but powerful; if the Father did not raise the Son on the third day, there is no Christianity. There is no foundation for our faith, our religion. But if God did raise His Son on the third day in order to give us sinners' victory over sin and death, then no one, no power, nothing in this world or anywhere else can make God's work or His Word void. "So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: It shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it." (Isaiah 55:11) John 1:14 tell us that Jesus, the only begotten of the Father, was the Word made flesh. Well surely when the Christ, the Messiah, died on the cross, that would put an end to this "Son of God" nonsense. It did not. Christ rose from the dead on the third day and ascended to heaven forty days later and sent the Holy Spirit on the day of Pentecost. On this day of Pentecost, "then they that gladly received his word were baptized: and the same day there were added unto them three thousand souls." (Acts 2:41, emphasis added) WHAT! Wait a minute, despite Jesus' crucifixion, the true witness of His resurrection and the power of the Holy Spirit combined to enable the Word to spread and for the church to prosper. Despite ever-growing opposition and persecution by the chief priests in Jerusalem, the church continued to grow and prosper. Then they martyred Stephen by stoning him to death and greatly persecuting the church so that most of them scattered abroad. Surely this would put out the holy fire of Christ. No, it did not; instead this fire spread throughout the region. Like stomping on a liquid fire the flames did not go out but were spread making the fire even greater than it was before. Now it was spreading not only to Jews, but to the Gentiles as well. Not only did this attempt to stomp out Christianity at its source not work, it actually helped to spread the gospel; this "good news" of the Word made flesh and sent into the world to die on the cross and be raised from the dead so that we, through Him, might be saved. The Lord sent out His Word in the form of His Son and behold, it was not returning void. It was accomplishing what the Lord pleased and it was prospering in the thing for which it had been sent. Okay, so the locals could put this fire out. Let's bring in the big boys. The Roman Empire had conquered everything in its path. They ruled the known world with an iron fist. Not only were they big enough to stomp out an individual, they were big enough to stomp the entire city of Jerusalem and they did. Funny thing though, even though they were this big, bad empire, they still weren't big or bad enough to stomp out the Son of God. They killed the apostles, the leaders of the church but still the church grew. They killed ordinary Christians by the thousands but still, the church grew and spread. They made just being a Christian illegal and it still did not stop this heavenly fire from spreading throughout the world. What is the basis for this fire? Jesus Christ, the Son of God who sacrificed Himself and was raised from the dead on the third day. "Therefore doth my Father love me, because I lay down my life, that I might take it again. No man taketh it from me, but I lay it down of myself. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. This commandment have I received of my Father." (John 10:17 – 18) No man took His life. He gave it freely out of love so we could be saved. And on the third day, He rose from the grave and is now sitting at the right hand of the Father. JESUS LIVES! "I am He that liveth, and was dead; and, behold, I am alive forevermore, Amen; and have the keys of hell and death." (Revelation 1:18) Finally, what did the Word made flesh tell us to do in His Word? "Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost: Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the world. Amen." (Matthew 28:19 – 20) What happened with this word? Everyone who reads this knows what happened. Despite all the opposition, this word was accomplished. Despite the circumstances of this sinful world, it did not return void. This word did and is still doing what pleases God. It is prospering in the thing that the Father has sent it to do and will continue even till the end of the world. Believe and you shall prosper in it as well. PRAISE THE LORD! God Bless You and Keep You You can e-mail What I Have to Say at bill_isay@yahoo.com
