What I Have To Say

“For the joy of the Lord is your strength.” (Nehemiah 8:10) The dictionary defines joy as a positive attitude or pleasant emotion; delight. That is fine as far as it goes but we are not talking about just joy but, “the joy of the Lord.” This takes joy to a whole new level. Now we are not talking about a positive attitude or pleasant emotion but a pure, holy, life-changing outlook that is not just pleasant and delightful (although it is) but imbues those who have it with a God given strength that can and does stand against anything. “That ye might walk worthy of the Lord unto all pleasing, being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God; strengthened with all might, according to His glorious power, unto all patience and longsuffering with joyfulness.” (Colossians 1:10 – 11) There it is. When we walk with God, then we increase our knowledge of Him and it is through knowing our Lord that we gain this glorious, joyous strength and power. Don't be confused, it is not our strength and power, but His that brings us true, eternal joy. When we accept Jesus Christ as our Lord and Savior, we start a journey in which our knowledge of Him grows and grows. This growth continues for as long as you continue to walk with Him and does not stop this side of heaven. This whole journey brings us greater and greater joy. The more we know God, the better we know Jesus, the more joyful we are and the more of this God given joy we have and it is this joyful strength that helps us to overcome the various trials and tribulations that we face in our lives. When we accept Jesus Christ as our Savior, He becomes just that for us – our salvation! It is not complicated. It is not a trick. GOD IS NOT CRUEL. He is not playing some cosmic game of “GOTCHA” with us. This absolute, secure knowledge of our salvation gives us both joy and strength. Whereas we were once sinners destined for hell, now we are saved to live eternally with our Lord in heaven. “And in that day thou shalt say, O Lord, I will praise thee: though thou wast angry with me, thine anger is turned away, and thou comfortedst me. Behold, God is my salvation; I will trust, and not be afraid: for the Lord JEHOVAH is my strength and my song; He also is become my salvation. Therefore with joy shall ye draw water out of the wells of salvation.” (Isaiah 12: 1 – 3) In my own words: When God is your salvation, the joy of the Lord comes to you as well.

Think about it. A billion dollars plus salvation means that you will have eternal joy in heaven with God sometime in the next 100 years (but probably much sooner). On the other hand, a billion dollars without salvation means that sometime in the next 100 years (it will probably be much sooner), you will have eternal misery and death in hell. Also, cancer plus salvation means that soon you will have eternal joy in heaven with God. And again, being dirt poor plus salvation means that soon you will have eternal joy in heaven with God. But, whatever you have gained in this life, whatever you have accumulated, if it is without salvation, then soon you will have eternal misery and death in hell and whatever you have gained in this life will be both worthless and useless. Now we can see where the strength and joy originates. It comes from the faith that we have in our Savior, Jesus Christ, to provide us the eternal salvation He has promised us in His Word so that no matter what our current circumstances are in this world, soon we will have eternal joy in heaven. We will live forever and be completely happy for every single second of that never ending hallelujah condition.

While everything I said is true, it is also true that there are no perfect people, not even perfect Christians and that any of us can get discouraged from time to time. This even happened in the Bible to the great prophet Elijah. Just days after a great victory over the idol worshiping priests of Baal, Elijah got so discouraged that he asked God to just let him die (see 1 Kings, Chapters 18 & 19). The point is that we can all get discouraged. Sometimes it can be the result of some large and/or tragic event or circumstance. At other times it can be all those “little foxes” nipping at us and they don't seem to be getting tired at all. However, if we remain faithful to Him, He will remain faithful to us. This means if we don't give up, God will restore our strength and our joy. If we continue to go to church, if we continue in His Word, if we continue to pray, then God will give the preacher a sermon that we just know was for us, or we will discover a piece of scripture that speaks to our very souls, or God will answer our prayer in a marvelous and wonderful way. The point is that God will not let us down. “Let your conversation be without covetousness; and be content with such things as ye have: for He hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee.” (Hebrews 13:5) A discouraged but faithful Christian that doesn't give up means salvation and salvation means... well, you know what it means.

Finally, the more you know Christ, the more strength and joy you will have and even in those times when we are weak and discouraged, He is never weak or discouraged. “Is my hand shortened at all, that it cannot redeem? Or have I no power to deliver? (Isaiah 50:2) The Lord will restore our joy. “For His anger endureth but a moment; in His favour is life: weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning.” (Psalm 30:5)
