What i Have To Say

“PRAISE YE the Lord. Praise God in His sanctuary: praise Him in the firmament of His power. Praise Him for His mighty acts: praise Him according to His excellent greatness. Praise Him with the sound of the trumpet: praise Him with the psaltery and harp. Praise Him with the timbrel and dance: praise Him with stringed instruments and organs. Praise Him upon the loud cymbals: praise Him upon the high sounding cymbals. Let everything that hath breath praise the Lord. Praise ye the Lord.” (Psalm 150) We are supposed to praise God. We are made to praise God. This psalm answers three important questions about praising God. First, why do we praise Him? We praise Him for who he is (Almighty God) and what He has done (creation and sacrificing His Son Jesus Christ to provide for our eternal salvation are two highlights that come to mind). Secondly, how do we praise Him? We praise Him in every sincere, heartfelt and loving way that we can. Third, who is supposed to praise Him? Everything that has breath is supposed to praise Him. This includes me and most assuredly includes each and every one of you.

When I think of God in all His mighty splendor and power; when I think about He who speaks and all reality is ordered at His Word; when I think about my God looking at me and seeing and contemplating me under His great gaze so that He knows me down to my very atoms and beyond that to the very birth of both my spirit and soul, I realize that His great, great love for us is the only reason I, or any of us, are not consumed immediately into a small wisp of smoke soon gone away the first moment He looks upon us. And what does this God of supreme power and overarching love ask us to do? PRAISE HIM! “PRAISE YE the Lord. Praise ye the name of the Lord; praise Him, O ye servants of the Lord. Ye that stand in the house of the Lord, in the courts of the house of our God, Praise the Lord; for the Lord is good: sing praises unto His name; for it is pleasant.” (Psalm 135: 1 – 3)

Okay, we are all supposed to praise the Lord. What happens when we do? To answer this question, we must first look at the nature of praise. Praise is the natural occurrence or outpouring that is evidence of a right relationship with God. In other words, when we step out in faith and accept Jesus Christ as our Lord and Savior, we become born-again, saved Christians. As such, we get to know and experience God's love for us. We also learn more about Him by attending church, reading His Word for us (the Bible) and just by talking to Him and having Him talk to us (prayer). Our praise is just a natural and appropriate response to His love for us, His salvation of us and the brand new life He provides for us as we get to know Him better. In fact, getting closer to God is a life-long process that never stops as long as you don't give up. The closer you get to God, the more you just want to praise Him, the more you need to praise Him because you know who He is and what He has done for not only for you but for all that sincerely seek Him.

Now for the other side; what does God get out of our praise? We must understand first that God is God and doesn't “need” our praise. He was God before anything existed and will still be God after heaven and earth melt away. We must all understand that the nature of our relationship with God is that we “need” to praise Him and is not that He “needs” our praise. He is God regardless of who praises Him or who does not praise Him. However, to say He gets nothing from our praise is wrong as well. What God gets out of our praise is...pleasure. “Let them praise His name in the dance: let them sing praises unto Him with the timbrel and harp. For the Lord taketh pleasure in His people: He will beautify the meek with salvation.” (Psalm 149: 3 – 4) He is pleased by our praise. “I will praise the name of the God with a song, and will magnify Him with thanksgiving. This also shall please the Lord better than an ox or bullock that hath horns and hoofs.” (Psalm 69: 30 – 31) What happens when we please our father and give Him pleasure? Well, like any good father, He rewards us. He rewards us with a closer relationship to Him. He rewards us with the fruit of the Spirit (see Galatians 5: 22 – 23). He eventually rewards us with salvation and eternal life with Him. All of nature praises God, “Praise ye Him, sun and moon: praise Him, all ye stars of light. Praise Him ye heaven of heavens, and ye waters that be above the heavens. Let them praise the name of the Lord: for He commanded, and they were created. He hath also stablished them for ever and ever; He hath made a decree which shall not pass. Praise the Lord form the earth, ye dragons, and all deeps: Fire, and hail; snow, and vapour; stormy wind fulfilling His word: Mountains, and all hills; fruitful trees, and all cedars: Beasts, and all cattle; creeping things and flying fowl:” (Psalm 148: 3 – 10), but He has given us the gift of free will. He has given us the chance to choose. Choose well. Choose wisely. PRAISE THE LORD!

God Bless You and Keep You You can e-mail What i Have to Say at bill_isay@yahoo.com
